

READING CHALLENGE

Are you up for the challenge?

We would like you to try to complete as many of the challenges below as you can.

You may choose a few to do or you might be really brave and do them all!

You must provide evidence of you completing these challenges. We would love to see photos, for our display in school.

Alternatively, you may ask an adult to sign and date the box below to say you have completed the task.

Read to an elderly relative	Read a book from your local library	Read a book that makes you laugh	Read in the dark with a torch	Write a book review
Read a spooky story	Read an adventure story	Read a non-fiction book	Read a newspaper	Read to a younger child in a handmade den
Read a book outside	Tell a story to an adult	Read a sign in a shop or supermarket	Read in an unusual place	Read on a form of transport (bus/car e.t.c)
Read a book by Roald Dahl	Read a poem	Read (and make) a recipe	Read a website that interests you (ask for the permission of an adult)	Read to a pet or other animal

The entries must be sent into school to your class teacher by Monday 20th May. You could send them in together as a PowerPoint or make a book of your pictures. Or you could send them in one at a time as you complete the challenges. They can be printed or emailed.

If you wish to email your entry please make the subject 'Reading Challenge' and send to admin@cdatstpaulsprimary.co.uk

There will be prizes for the children who impress us with their entries. Will you be a winner?
